AMUSEMENTS.

It is very sad to chronicle, but "The Choir Invisible" has been withdrawn from the reason that it could not be made successful.

The two performances of Rice & Barton's burlesque company at the Empire Theater last night were well attended. Returns from the election were read from the stage.

The advance sale of seats for the Modjeska engagement at English's Opera House indicates that the great actress will be given a warm reception this afternoon when she appears in "Mary Stuart" and to-night when she will present a splendid revival of "King John."

Barton & Brooks, who are at the Park this week with Hyde's Comedians, are two as clever comedians as usually travel with a specialty company. They have two songs in particular, "You and I and All of Us" and "More Work for the Undertaker," that make tremendous hits.

The part of Count Orloff in "Diplomacy" at the Grand this week, which is assigned to Mr. Kirkland, does not run through the entire play, but is nevertheless one of the most important characters in the cast. Mr. Kirkland is further distinguishing himself by his excellent delineation of the character.

About everybody seems filled with a desire to see "The House that Jack Built" at English's Friday and Saturday nights and Saturday afternoon of the current week. A farce seldom comes to a city under more favorable auspices—Broadway as the author and a cast including Thomas Wise, Mrs. Annie Yeaman and Miss Jennie Yeaman.

"The Best Man," a new play written by Capt. R. Marshall, author of "His Excellency the Governor" and "A Royal Family," especially for Nat Goodwin has been rejected by Mr. Goodwin because it is lacking in the essential of two strong parts for himself and Miss Elliott. Manager Charles Frohman has taken the piece off Mr. Goodwin's hands.

"The Drama" is the title of a play upon which Edmond Rostand is said to be hard at work for Mme. Sarah Bernhardt. The new piece will, it is said, depict the life behind the scenes in a realistic manner. The distinguished French actress has also accepted two other dramas, one by Sardou called "The Witch," and the other by MM. Cain and Cogh entitled "The Sleeping Beauty."

Joe Jefferson is said to have witnessed James O'Neill's production of "Monte Cristo" in Boston recently and been greatly delighted with it. Going behind the scenes, he extended a cordial greeting to Mr. O'Neill, who used to be in Jefferson's forces, and said: "The last time I saw this play was many, many years ago, when I played Cadoreuse to E. S. Davenport's Danies. Davenport's Danies was good, James, but yours is better."

The Zoo held forth until 1 o'clock this morning. The election returns were received by special wire. The attendance was large. The performance put on were excellent. Baby Ida with her canine pets, and in Cuban dances was a prime favorite. Capt. Bonavita and his lions made a big hit. He made "Denver" portray the part of "The Politician." Mme. Morrell was at the Zoo, and put her fingers through a series of difficult and dangerous feats. The Zoo is gaining in attendance and popularity from day to day.

Mrs. Frank A. Hamilton gave a reception yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Benjamin A. Richardson, nee Miss Susan G. Brown, and Miss Gonsaulus, of Chicago. The hostess was assisted in receiving by her mother, Mrs. Robert W. Furness, Mr. Clinton D. Lasher, Mrs. Orla Woody and Miss Ida Hamilton, and during the afternoon by Mrs. R. G. Morgan, Miss May Morris and Miss Anna Wright. The different rooms were adorned with chrysanthemums and foliage plants. In the dining room yellow and white were the colors used on the table and in the appointments. Yellow chrysanthemums adorned the table and the silver candlesticks held yellow candles.

Mrs. Richard J. Francis was the hostess for a salamagundi party yesterday afternoon in honor of her guest, Miss Koons, of Muncie, and Mrs. Halden Butler, of Denver. Assisting Mrs. Francis in receiving and entertaining were Mrs. M. K. Gachart, Mrs. Joseph C. Reagan, Mr. Chauncey Clark, Miss Dalrymple and the Misses Florence and Pearl Randall. The different rooms were adorned with either chrysanthemums, carnations or roses, and the mantels in the different rooms were banked with ferns. At each table there was a different occupation, at one sewing, at another making buttonholes and at the most skillful in the various games were awarded prizes. Among the guests were the Misses Mutz, of Edinburg; Miss Conner, of Shelbyville, and Miss Best, of Dayton, O.
